Introduction and Summary Overview

The purpose of this Constitution is to set out in clear language how the Fire and Rescue Authority works and how it makes its decisions.

Background

The role of North Wales Fire and Rescue Authority is to perform all the duties and responsibilities of a Fire and Rescue Authority in accordance with appropriate legislation and regulations, in particular:

- the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994,
- the North Wales (Combination Scheme) Order 1995 as amended
- Fire and Rescue Services Act 2004,
- the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005
- Combined Fire and Rescue Services Schemes (Variation) Wales Order 2009
- Local Government (Wales) Measure 2009
- Local Government (Wales) Measure 2011
- Welsh Government's Fire and Rescue National Framework 2012
- The Wellbeing of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015.

The Authority has a statutory obligation to maintain a Fire and Rescue Service capable of dealing effectively with calls for assistance in the case of fire and other emergencies.

THE CONSTITUTION

The Authority has agreed a new constitution which sets out how the Authority operates, how decisions are made and the procedures which are followed to ensure that these are efficient, transparent and accountable to local communities. Some of these processes are required by the law, while others are a matter for the Authority to choose.

The Constitution is divided into 11 articles that set out the basic rules governing the Authority's business. More detailed procedures and codes of practice are provided in separate rules and protocols at the end of the document.

WHAT'S IN THE CONSTITUTION?

How the Authority Operates

Members of the Fire and Rescue Authority

The Authority is composed of 28 councillors from the six unitary authorities of North Wales. The number of representatives from each constituent authority is determined on a population basis.

Members of the Authority are appointed following local authority elections; constituent authorities may decide to appoint for the whole of the term (until the next local election) or annually.. Members can resign from the Authority or will cease to be members of the Authority if they cease to be members of the constituent authority for whatever reason. The term of office will also be regulated by the provisions of the Combination Order 1995.

As Members of the Fire and Rescue Authority, councillors do not represent the individual wards/divisions for which they were elected or even the constituent authorities by whom they were appointed. Instead they have a duty to represent the interests of the community across the whole of North Wales.

The names and contact details of all members of the Fire and Rescue Authority are available on our website at www.nwales-fireservice.org.uk

Code of Conduct

The Fire and Rescue Authority, supported by the Monitoring Officer, has a duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by Members and has adopted a Code of Conduct to facilitate this.

Full Authority

All Members meet together as the Authority. These meetings are open to the public unless exempt or confidential information is being discussed. Here Members decide the Authority's strategic direction and future plans and set the budget each year. The Authority delegates to the Executive Panel/Audit Committee to discuss reports in detail and to make recommendations to the full Authority.

A Member is appointed at the Annual Meeting in June each year to act as the Chair of the Authority. He or she presides over the Authority's meetings and is responsible for interpreting the rules of procedure with the power to control and regulate the course of the debate. In undertaking these duties, the Chair must act impartially but the Chair has a vote on decisions and may have a second (or casting) vote where this is necessary.

How Decisions Are Made

The Authority will issue, and keep up to date, a record of what part of the organisation, or which individual, is responsible for particular types of decisions or decisions relating to particular areas or functions.

Overview and Scrutiny

Unlike many authorities, the Fire and Rescue Authority does not have a separate Overview and Scrutiny Committee but the work of the Audit and Standards Committees by their nature involve a high degree of scrutiny of the adequacy and efficiency of the Service and of its policies and procedures.

Where necessary, Member Working Groups can be utilised to support the work of the Authority. These are small working groups of Members that are established as necessary to look at particular issues in more detail and report back to the Authority. The membership and methodology of the Working Groups will be flexible to meet the needs of the particular circumstance.

The Authority's Officers

The Authority has people working for it (called 'officers') to give advice, implement decisions and manage the day-to-day delivery of its services. The Chief Fire Officer is the principal professional advisor to the Authority. Some officers have a specific duty to ensure that the Authority acts within the law and uses its resources wisely. There is a scheme of delegation whereby the Chief Fire Officer can take decisions in line with that scheme of delegation. A code of practice governs the relationships between officers and Members of the Authority.

The Public

The public have a number of rights in their dealings with the Authority. These are set out in more detail in Article 3. Some of these are legal rights, whilst others depend on the Authority's own processes. The Authority welcomes participation by members of the public in its work.

The Authority consults its stakeholders in a variety of ways to identify areas of most importance to users, to measure their satisfaction with its performance, and in so doing identify areas for improvement.

Introduction

The following details are set out in this part of the Constitution:

- Summary of Committees and sub-committees appointed by the Authority;
- Diagram of the Authority's political management arrangements;
- Detailed terms of reference and procedural protocols for each committee/Sub-committee;
- Scheme of Delegation to the Chief Fire Officer.

The Authority may alter the terms of reference or composition of any committee from time to time or appoint any additional committees as appropriate.

Subject to the provisions of the constitution and any legal requirements, any function of a committee may be delegated to any Committee or Officer (but not to a single Member).

Executive Panel

The Executive Panel consists of the Chair and Deputy Chair and two members from each council. That is 14 members in total. It is chaired by the Chair or, in his/her absence, the Deputy Chair. It meets approximately four times a year, between each meeting of the Authority, although additional meetings may be held depending on workload. The role of the Panel includes the appointment of senior officers, and any associated disciplinary or pension-related matters. The Panel also monitors the performance of the Service and makes recommendations to the Authority on its key policies including the Improvement and Well-being Plan.

Audit Committee

The Committee's membership consists of all non-executive (panel) members (14 councillors) and meets a minimum of twice per year. The Chair and Deputy Chair are appointed from different constituent authorities. The Committee's primary role is to audit and scrutinise governance, financial and resource management and risk management and assurance. The Committee has the facility to set up time-limited task groups to undertake reviews and it has the discretion to co-opt Executive members with relevant expertise onto these groups.

Part 3 – Responsibility for Functions

Standards Committee

This committee is required by the Local Government Act 2000. The committee consists of 6 members, four of whom are independent. The Chair and Deputy Chair are drawn from the independent members. The committee has to meet at least twice a year. The frequency of meetings will depend on what other work the committee is required to do - for example in considering complaints or advising the Authority on issues to do with standards.

Improvement Plan Working Group

The Working Group consists of two members from each county (borough) council, including the Chair and Deputy Chair. In total 12 councillors. The Working Group deals with the detailed work in connection with the Authority's planning and budget process before it submits its observations to the Executive Panel to enable it to formulate recommendations in relation to the Improvement and Well-being Plan and budget to the Authority. The Working Group meets on a regular basis in the run-up to publication of documents.

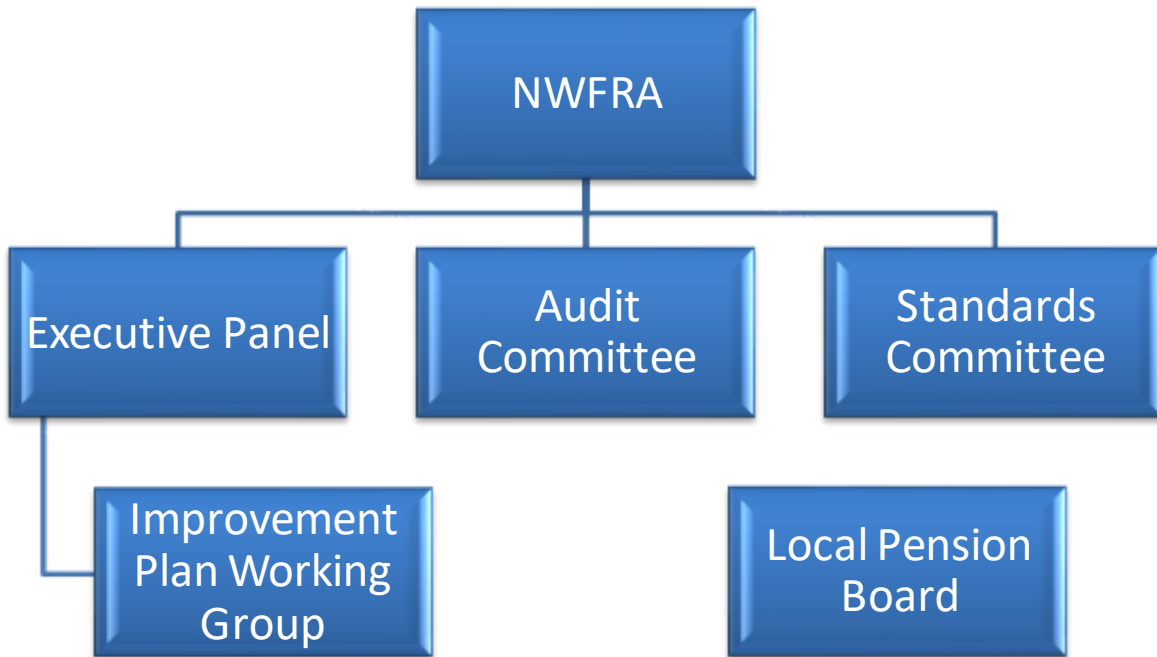

The Working Group is not a formally constituted committee and therefore meetings are not open to the public. Although the Working Group has no powers, it undertakes detailed work in relation to certain areas of work and submits recommendations to the Executive Panel and/or the full Authority for information or approval.

Local Pension Board

Although not a committee as such the Local Pension Board is an internal body consisting of representatives of the Authority as employer (unusually both officers and councillors can represent the Authority) and officers and trade union officials representing the employees. Its role is to provide oversight and advice to the Authority in its role as pension provider.

Part 3 – Responsibility for Functions

The Democratic Structure of the Authority's Committees is as follows:

- (6) If an amendment is not carried, other amendments may be moved to the original motion. If an amendment is carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the motion upon which any further amendment may be moved. Whenever any final amendment is not carried the person presiding shall put to the vote the relevant motion.

Part 4 – Rules and Procedures

- (7) If two or more members offer to speak, the person presiding shall call on one to speak and where appropriate shall call to speak alternatively supporters and opposers for the question under discussion.
- (8) When speaking, a member shall address the person presiding.
- (9) A member may only speak in relation to the question under discussion, or to a personal explanation or a point of order under the provisions of the next paragraph.
- (10) A member may claim to speak on a point of order or in personal explanation, and shall be entitled to be heard forthwith. A point of order shall relate only to an alleged breach of a specified statutory provision or a specified standing order, and the way in which the member raising it considers that it has been broken. In the context of these Financial Regulations an officer is defined as an employee holding the rank of Station Manager or above or Head or Deputy Head of Department for non-operational roles.
- 1.8 It is the responsibility of all Members and officers to familiarise themselves with the provisions of the Financial Regulations and for officers to take reasonable steps to bring them to the attention of their staff as appropriate. - 4.3.4 Income which is the result of disposing of an asset and which is greater than £10k will be considered to be a capital receipt. All other income will be treated as revenue. Section 8.7 deals with the procedure for disposing of assets.
- 4.3.5 Where a capital scheme or part of a capital scheme is subject to work which is tendered, and the tender comes in at more than 10% or £50k, whichever is the lower, below the tender estimate, then the budget will be adjusted to reflect the actual tender figure rather than the estimate.

42. Contract Performance

42.1 All Contractors shall be subjected to regular Contract performance reviews through feedback received from external and internal stakeholders. Where appropriate, a performance review shall be undertaken at the end of each completed Contract or job. This shall include a requirement to record good and poor performance including complaints, issues and defects arising under a Contract and to monitor the aggregation of Contractor defaults including performance issues.

42.2 Incidents of poor performance shall first be raised with the Contractor in writing or at a meeting where notes are made and sent to the Contractor before the annual report is despatched. 47.2 Responsible Officers must seek to specify goods and services by reference to objective, non-product specific descriptions. Equivalent goods or services are nearly always capable of being specified. If this is not possible for genuine technical reasons, and a particular type of product or service or method of production or delivery has to be stated, then the words "or equivalent" must always be added.

47.3 The Authority may provide potential main or principal Contractors with a list of Authority-approved suppliers or sub-Contractors provided that it is made clear that they are free to sub-Contract to whoever they wish, subject to the Authority's right to consent. The Authority's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any sub-Contractors must meet the Authority's reasonable requirements in relation to technical standards, financial standing and insurance levels.

Overview and Scrutiny Committees

13. You also have a prejudicial interest in any business before an overview and scrutiny committee of your authority (or of a sub-committee of such a committee) where—

(a) that business relates to a decision made (whether implemented or not) or action taken by your authority's executive, board or another of your authority's committees, sub-committees, joint committees or joint subcommittees; and

PART 4 THE REGISTER OF MEMBERS' INTERESTS

Registration of Personal Interests

15.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), you must, within 28 days of—

(a) your authority's code of conduct being adopted or the mandatory provisions of this model code being applied to your authority; or

(b) your election or appointment to office (if that is later), register your personal interests, where they fall within a category mentioned in paragraph 10(2)(a), in your authority's register of members' interests by providing written notification to your authority's monitoring officer.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), you must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new personal interest falling within a category mentioned in paragraph 10(2)(a), register that new personal interest in your authority's register of members' interests by providing written notification to your authority's monitoring officer.

(3) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), you must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any change to a registered personal interest falling within a category mentioned in paragraph 10(2)(a), register that change in your authority's register of members' interests by providing written notification to your authority's monitoring officer, or in the case of a community council to your authority's proper officer.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

(4) Sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) do not apply to sensitive information determined in accordance with paragraph 16(1).

(5) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) do not apply if you are a member of a relevant authority which is a community council when you act in your capacity as a member of such an authority.

(6) You must, when disclosing a personal interest in accordance with paragraph 11 for the first time, register that personal interest in your authority's register of members' interests by providing written notification to your authority's monitoring officer, or in the case of a community council to your authority's proper officer.

Sensitive information

16.—(1) Where you consider that the information relating to any of your personal interests is sensitive information, and your authority's monitoring officer agrees, you need not include that information when registering that interest, or, as the case may be, a change to the interest under paragraph 15.

(2) You must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any change of circumstances which means that information excluded under sub-paragraph (1) is no longer sensitive information, notify your authority's monitoring officer, or in relation to a community council, your authority's proper officer asking that the information be included in your authority's register of members' interests.

(3) In this code, "sensitive information" ("gwybodaeth sensitif") means information whose availability for inspection by the public creates, or is likely to create, a serious risk that you or a person who lives with you may be subjected to violence or intimidation.

Registration of Gifts and Hospitality

17. You must, within 28 days of receiving any gift, hospitality, material benefit or advantage above a value specified in a resolution of your authority, provide written notification to your authority's monitoring officer, or in relation to a community council, to your authority's proper officer of the existence and nature of that gift, hospitality, material benefit or advantage.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

PROTOCOL ON MEMBER/EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

Member/Employee Protocol

This protocol codifies existing good practice in member/employee relations in North Wales Fire and Rescue Authority. It is not intended as a prescriptive checklist.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 An effective working relationship between members and employees is crucial to the successful operation of the Authority's business.
- 1.2 Members are appointed by their respective county (borough) council and serve until their appointment is terminated, they resign or they cease to be a member of their council.
- 1.3 Employees are employed to advise the Authority and to implement its decisions. Employee advice must be full and impartial and should include all relevant options. It must not seek to second-guess the decisions of members, for example by excluding presumed unpalatable options, and must be clear and professional at all times. Members should respect employees' political neutrality at all times. But members are entitled to reject employee advice and to give effect to their lawful policies even if these are clearly at variance with the views of employees. Members are entitled to seek advice and to call for a report to a committee on any matter within its terms of reference.
- 1.4 Relations between members and employees – For the effective conduct of Authority business there must be mutual respect in all meetings and contact between members and employees. The basic tenets of common courtesy apply in both formal and informal settings. Members should be aware that employees are constrained in the response they may make to public comment from members, and should not abuse employees in public or through the press, nor seek to undermine their position by abuse, rudeness or ridicule. This in no way reduces members' proper right and duty to criticise the reports actions and work of a department or section of the Authority, where they believe such criticism is merited. If members believe they have reason to criticise the work of an individual employee, the proper approach should be through the senior manager of the section or the Chief Fire Officer. Equally, where employees feel they have good cause to criticise a member, an approach by the Chief Fire Officer to the Chair is a sensible first step.
- 1.5 It is widely accepted that there will be informal contact between party political groups and employees at a senior level, often of a sensitive nature. This protocol is designed to provide a framework for contact between members and employees, both formal and informal, and to ensure that members and employees are as clear as they can be as to their roles and responsibilities in relation to each other.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

2. Specific Issues

- 2.1 Appointments – Every appointment to paid local authority employment must be on merit.
- 2.2 Political impartiality – Senior employees cannot be local authority councillors or AMs/MPs, nor can they “speak or publish written work for the public at large or to a section of the public with the apparent intention of affecting public support for a political party”. Such employees are nevertheless able to engage in such activity to “such extent as is necessary for the proper performance of their duties”. (Section 1- 3 Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and Local Government Employees (Political Restrictions) Regulations 1990).
- 2.3 Employees are employed by the Authority, not by committees or individual councillors, and are subject to the Authority’s employment procedures. Employees cannot be required to advise any political group of the Authority, either as to the work of the group or as to the work of the Authority, nor can they be required to attend any meetings of any political groups. This is without prejudice to any arrangements to the contrary which may be made with any employee and which includes safeguards to preserve the political neutrality of the employee in relation to the affairs of the Authority.
- 2.4 Authorship of reports –Committee reports should be written by the relevant Principal Officer or another employee authorised by him or her. The report is the employee’s and may not be amended by a member. Nor can an individual member instruct an employee not to present a report if the employee considers it proper to do so. If the report is not regarded as appropriate, the remedy is for the committee to reject its recommendations or refer it back.
- 2.5 Decision making and political groups – Members and employees must understand that Authority decisions can only be made by the Authority, a committee or sub-committee or the Chief Fire Officer acting under delegated authority. Members and employees should not act on group decisions. Representations by interested parties on any matter for Authority decision should be made to the appropriate committee, and not exclusively to a political group, at which employee advice on the points raised is unavailable.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

- 2.6 Proper communication between members and employees –Principal Officers must recognise that it is their duty to keep members fully informed about developments of significance in relation to Authority activities. Principal Officers must also report promptly to the relevant committee any significant failure to implement a decision of that committee.

Regular contact between members and senior employees is necessary to ensure the efficient working of the Authority. In this context, it is the responsibility of Principal Officers to identify the senior employees who should have regular contact with members, and this will depend upon the nature of the service they provide and the nature of the member contact envisaged. But members should always bring major concerns about issues directly to the attention of the Principal Officer concerned. Principal Officers may issue instructions to their staff to ensure that this is the case.

Serious problems can arise if members by-pass appropriate lines of communication to Principal Officers and their senior colleagues and, for example, deal with more junior members of staff to seek views on policy issues, non-routine business, or attempt to give instructions to staff. This has the effect of depriving members of the formal, informed and accountable advice they have a right to expect from Principal Officers and which they have a duty to consider. It may also serve to undermine the formal accountability of staff to their line manager.

- 2.7 Courtesy and complaints – Contact between members and employees should always be courteous both in public and in private. If an individual member has a complaint about a junior employee, it should be raised with the appropriate Principal Officer.

If the complaint concerns a senior employee it should be raised with the Chief Fire Officer. A complaint about the Chief Fire Officer should be raised with the Clerk to the Authority. A complaint may be dealt with as part of routine liaison, supervision or review, or be referred for formal action in accordance with Authority procedures and any statutory provisions governing disciplinary action. This does not however preclude a member from making public, at a meeting or in another appropriate way, a concern about the manner in which the Service has acted. Nor does it prevent members at formal meetings being critical of employee advice or action or of the quality of reports before them.

- 2.8 Social contact between senior employees and members is beneficial in a public setting and a work-related context. However, a professional relationship must be maintained at all times and employees must be careful not to socialise with members of one political group to the exclusion of others. Social contact between a member and a more junior employee may also be appropriate providing this occurs openly and does not result in breaches of confidence or of management instructions, or the reasonable suspicion of them. Employees must always take care in such situations to avoid casting doubt on their impartiality.

- 2.9 Canvassing and visits – Members should be aware that it can be a disciplinary offence for members of staff to seek to circumvent agreed staff consultative procedures by lobbying Members on matters which directly concern them as employees. Members should also remember that informal contacts with staff should not be used to promote their own personal interests.

Members will frequently come into contact with junior employees when visiting Service premises. Such visits are encouraged as they increase member understanding of Service functions, provide reassurance to service users of the involvement of their elected representatives in monitoring services, and will often also be welcomed by staff. However, such visits should be arranged via the Members Liaison Employee and relevant Principal Officers should normally be advised in advance of member visits to front-line services.

- 2.10 Close personal relationships between members and employees with whom they have, or are likely to have, contact in the course of their duties as a councillor are to be avoided. This includes close friendships between members and Principal Officers, and applies in particular to sexual relationships. If such a relationship arises, the member or employee should disclose this to the Chief Fire Officer who will consult with the Chair on the appropriate course of action. Both members and employees should also avoid establishing business or contractual relationships with each other, or entering into loans or other financial obligations.
- 2.11 Assistance to all members - Employees have a duty to offer the same assistance and facilities to all members irrespective of political party or home authority; employees should ensure that they treat all members in the same manner. This particularly applies to briefings, at which employees provide oral advice and information to members outside the formal processes of the Authority. They may be requested by the relevant members or offered by the Principal Officer, and are confidential in the sense that employees should not disclose matters discussed at such briefings. Individual members may also request briefings from Principal Officers from time to time on general issues affecting the work of the Authority. It is the duty of employees to comply with reasonable requests of this kind.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

2.12 Correspondence and confidentiality – Frequently, members and employees correspond, and where not obviously confidential, such correspondence may, subject to the rules below, be copied by either the sender or the recipient to others. Correspondence should be courteous. Wide circulation of it should not be employed as a means of administering a public rebuke to an Authority employee or member. Members should, wherever possible, keep departmental or section heads informed by copying their correspondence, e-mails, etc. or approaching them directly for replies to general queries.

If a member asks for information about or relating to another member or asks for comment upon another member's conduct then the member requesting the information must be told in writing that any reply will be shared with the member to whom the information relates. If the member making the request does not agree to this they will not be given the information.

2.13 Access to Information – Members have legal rights of access to documents in the possession or under the control of the Authority and employees should implement requests for information from members who need that information for the fulfilment of their duties as a member.

- a) Normally, employees will accept that members do not ask for information without good reason and will not question the member's "need to know". But in the words of relevant legal judgements, a member has no right to a "roving commission" and "mere curiosity or desire" is not sufficient. Nor can the member exercise the right for some improper motive, e.g. to assist someone in litigation with the Authority, its staff, suppliers or service users.
- b) In rare cases, therefore the Chief Fire Officer may apply the "need to know" test. The member will need to show why the information is necessary to fulfil Authority duties. Where an employee considers that a member has not established a "need to know" in support of a request for access to information and refuses to provide the information requested, the employee shall state reasons for doing so.
- c) A member asking for complex or bulky information should be flexible in his or her demands if compiling and reproducing the documentation results in significant cost to a department. The member will normally be able to retain material for a reasonable time, and to copy individual documents, but may not make use of such information for an improper purpose or one unrelated to the member's duties as a councillor.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

- 2.14 Press and public relations – contact with the media on issues related to the Authority, or to Authority business, including the issue of press release, will be handled through the Corporate Communications Team.

Any Member who approaches the media purporting to speak on behalf of the Authority on any item involving or affecting the Authority, without first approaching or consulting with the Chair and Chief Fire Officer will be responsible for such action.

3. Legal Rights of Members

Nothing in this code shall derogate in any way from any right of a member enshrined in law and such legal rights override any conflicting provisions in this code.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

LOCAL RESOLUTION PROCEDURE FOR COMPLAINTS ABOUT BEHAVIOUR

INTRODUCTION

1. The NWFRA Standard and the Protocol for Member-Officer Relations are important in promoting good co-operation between members and between members and officers, thereby allowing the Authority to fulfil its duties effectively and professionally. It is therefore important that any allegations against a member that they have breached the standard and/or protocol can be dealt with quickly and effectively. The purpose of this procedure is to introduce a simple and easy way to understand the method of dealing with such allegations.
2. It is important that poor behaviour is quickly addressed and matters are handled whilst recollections are fresh. This procedure will therefore only apply to incidents or behaviour occurring in the 12 months prior to a complaint being made in writing to the Monitoring Officer.

STAGE 1 OF THE PROCEDURE

3. Any member or officer who wishes to submit an allegation under this procedure should send the complaint to the Clerk/Monitoring Officer. Officers wishing to make a complaint should first consult with their Line Manager. Following receipt of the complaint the Monitoring Officer will act as follows:-
 4. The Clerk/Monitoring Officer will not deal with the allegation at this stage in order to preserve their ability to advise the Standards Committee later in the process. In the first place the allegation will be referred either to the Deputy Clerk/Monitoring Officer (or another officer nominated by the Monitoring Officer) who will advise whether the allegation falls within this procedure or whether it should be referred to the Ombudsman as an allegation of breach of the Members Code of Conduct.
- N.B. The complainant has the statutory right to complain to the Public Service Ombudsman for Wales ("PSOW"). Should the complainant exercise that right then this procedure will not be used, and any efforts to resolve a complaint using this procedure will be stopped. The process will only resume if the matter is referred back for local resolution.
5. This procedure is only suitable for allegations made by officers or members of NWFRA that a member has breached the NWFRA Standard or the Protocol on Member/Officer relations. It is not suitable for complaints:

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

- made by members of the public;
 - which in the opinion of the Clerk/Monitoring Officer allege a serious breach of the code of conduct; or
 - alleging repeated breaches of the code of conduct, or breaches where are similar to complaints that have been handled at Stage 3 of this procedure.
6. If the complaint is suitable for this procedure then the Deputy Clerk/Monitoring Officer will give advice about how to possibly resolve the complaint. If the complaint is not suitable for this procedure then the Deputy Clerk/Monitoring Officer will give advice about what (if anything) can be done.
7. If following the first stage the complainant wishes to proceed with the allegation under this procedure the matter may be referred either to a conciliation meeting under Stage 2 or to a hearing by the Standards Committee under Stage 3.

STAGE 2 OF THE PROCEDURE

8. At Stage 2 a meeting will be held between:
- the complainant
 - the member against whom the complaint is made
 - the Chief Fire Officer
 - the Deputy Clerk/Monitoring Officer.

It is also possible for the matter to be dealt with in the complainant's absence in exceptional cases.

9. The purpose of this meeting will be to try and resolve the matter by conciliation.

STAGE 3 OF THE PROCEDURE

10. The third Stage is a hearing before the Standards Committee. The complainant will be asked to submit the substance of the complaint in writing and the member concerned will be asked for a written response. These papers, together with any additional written evidence that is submitted by either side will be distributed to the members of the Standards Committee.
11. Both the complainant and the member have the right to appear before the Standards Committee and to submit evidence from witnesses. Both will have the right to representation or to have a colleague present. The Authority will not meet the costs of representation.

12. If either side wishes not to be present or fails to attend, the hearing may be held in their absence.
13. After the evidence has been heard, both sides and their representatives will be asked to leave the chamber and the Standards Committee will come to a conclusion on the allegation. The Monitoring Officer will be available to advise the Committee.
14. The Committee can come to one of three conclusions, namely :-
 - a) That there is no basis to the complaint.
 - b) That there is a basis to the complaint but that no further action is required.
 - c) That there is a basis to the complaint and that the member should be censured.

In addition the Committee can make recommendations to the Authority regarding changing any procedures or taking any further action.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATTERS

15. The papers for the hearing will be exempt and it will be recommended that the hearing will take place with the press and public excluded. Publicity will not be given to the names of either the member or the complainant unless it is decided TO UPHOLD the complaint and that the member should be censured.
16. Stages 2 and 3 do not have to be following sequentially. Although it is possible for a complainant who remains dissatisfied after the conciliation meeting to ask for the matter to be referred to a hearing before the Standards Committee, it is also possible for a matter to proceed directly to the Standards Committee without going first to a conciliation meeting.
17. The aim of this procedure is to try and resolve complaints regarding members quickly and effectively. Nothing in this procedure prevents a complainant from submitting a complaint to the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales that a member has breached the Members Code of Conduct.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

SOCIAL MEDIA PROTOCOL

This protocol applies to

- Members and co-opted members of the North Wales Fire and Rescue Authority (the Authority);
- Officers; and
- members of the press and public wishing to broadcast or transmit images, sound or messages from any meetings of the Authority or its committees.

Openness and Transparency

The Authority recognises that members of the public have the right to attend and, where not able to attend, to know and understand what has transpired at meetings of the Authority or its committees (hereinafter called meetings).

The Authority wishes to support the use of social media at meetings. Therefore members, the press and public are able to use social media from any meeting that is open to the public provided that a fair and accurate account is given of the meeting.

The protocol applies to the use of social media, such as Twitter or Facebook, to comment from meetings on what is happening or has happened at that meeting.

Issues for Members of the Fire and Rescue Authority

For Members and co-opted members (“Members”) this protocol forms an addendum to the Authority’s Code of Conduct and failure to adhere to the protocol may be taken into account when considering whether a breach of the Code of Conduct has taken place.

Courtesy, Respect and Impartiality

Members must make decisions on the basis of all relevant evidence, which includes:

- comments made by the public exercising rights to speak at meetings;
- presentations by officers; and
- comments made during debate by fellow Members of the Authority.

Using social media in meetings can be a distraction which can lead to Members missing vital evidence and can also give the impression that members are not listening or paying attention. It is therefore the responsibility of Members to make sure that they take on board all relevant matters during a meeting, even if they are using social media and that they do not appear discourteous by failing to pay attention, which could be seen as failing to treat others with respect.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

Fair, Accurate and Responsible Reporting

It is incumbent upon Members using social media to give a fair and accurate account of what transpires. Whilst people are free to make comment (see below for further advice about defamation and Code of Conduct issues) it is important that if they report what is taking place during the debate, they also report the outcome.

If Members fail to abide by this protocol, they might find that they are in breach of the Code of Conduct for failing to treat others with respect.

Example

During a debate it is possible that a Member might vehemently disagree with a motion that is moved and might thus transmit a note that is scornful of the proposal. However, if the motion were to be voted down in favour of another then if the fact that a different resolution was reached but was not also transmitted, that would create the wrong impression of the meeting.

Defamation and Code of Conduct Issues

Comments made by Members during debate may attract the defence of qualified privilege in respect of subsequent accusations of defamation. However, comments made in social media are unlikely to benefit from this defence.

Likewise, comments made during debate are less likely to be treated as a breach of the Code of Conduct. However, comments made in social media about other people which fail to treat them with respect could be a breach of the Authority's code of conduct.

Members are also under an obligation not to reveal confidential information. Therefore, the use of social media will not be permitted whilst a meeting is in closed session. Likewise, the outcome of items considered after the exclusion of the press and public is considered to be exempt information until such time as the minute is published.

Members of the Authority are also reminded that they must not reveal any confidential or exempt information that is given to them by the Authority and that they must comply with the Data Protection Act.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

Issues for Officers

For officers the protocol is an addendum to their code of conduct and the social media guidance issued previously to all staff. Failure to comply with these protocols could form the basis for disciplinary proceedings.

Officers attend meetings in order to advise Members. They shall not use social media whilst at meetings unless they are doing so specifically on behalf of the Authority.

Issues for Members of the Press and Public

For members of the press and public the protocol is intended to lay down the procedures that the Authority will follow should they wish use social media in meetings. It is important that the use of social media does not interfere with how the meeting is conducted, and any failure to abide by these requirements that leads to disruption of the meeting could result in members of the press and public being asked to stop and/or to leave the meeting at the discretion of the chairman.

The Authority would not seek to control what the press or public say, but would ask that they give a fair and accurate account of the content of debate and the outcome.

PROCEDURE FOR THE CONSIDERATION AND INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS MADE IN RESPECT OF ANY MEMBER OF NORTH WALES FIRE AND RESCUE AUTHORITY

SECTION 1 - BACKGROUND TO THESE PROCEDURES

- 1.1 These procedures are intended to assist the Standards Committee in dealing efficiently, fairly and effectively with complaints received in respect of any member of North Wales Fire and Rescue Authority. It is hoped that these procedures will assist the Standards Committee in ensuring that it employs a consistent and fair process when considering and investigating all complaints. These procedures also ensure that there is a clear process in place which ensures that Complainants and Members alike are kept fully informed of how the whole process will be approached by the Standards Committee.
- 1.2 The basic procedure in dealing with complaints is outlined in the various sections of this document. It is envisaged however that these basic principles will be developed over time and will be adapted by the Standards Committee as considered appropriate in order to improve their effectiveness. Such adaptations must naturally be consistent with the Committee's terms of reference and the extent of its role and duties.

SECTION 2 - ORIGIN OF THE COMPLAINT

- 2.1 The Standards Committee can consider the following complaints against members:
 1. A complaint arising under Stage 3 of the Local Resolution Procedure (LRP)
 2. A referral from the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales ("the Ombudsman")
- 2.2 Complaints alleging misconduct on the part of a Member may be made initially in writing to the Ombudsman at The Commission for Local Administration in Wales, 1 Ffordd yr Hen Gae, Pencoed, Bridgend, CF35 5LJ. Complaints may also be submitted to the Clerk and Monitoring Officer at North Wales Fire and Rescue Authority, County Hall, Mold, Flintshire, CH7 6NB, who will advise the complainant on whether to refer the complaint to the Ombudsman or whether the complaint might be suitable for resolution under the LRP.
- 2.3 The complaint must fully identify the Member(s) involved and give as much detail as possible as regards alleged failures to adhere to the Members' code of conduct. The current model code of conduct is in the Conduct of Councillors (Model Code of Conduct)(Wales) Order 2001 No.2289 as amended). The Clerk and Monitoring Officer may assist the Complainant in this respect, if assistance is requested by the Complainant.

- 2.4 The Ombudsman may decide to:
- a) reject the complaint;
 - b) refer the matter back to the Authority for it to handle under its LRP;
 - c) investigate the complaint.

SECTION 3 – LOCAL RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

- 3.1 The Authority has adopted a separate local resolution procedure. As described above a complainant may opt to use the LRP from the outset or the matter may be referred back to the Authority by the Ombudsman. As set out in the LRP the first two stages of the procedure are handled by officers. Only if the first two stages fail to resolve a complaint will it be referred to the Standards Committee.
- 3.2 Where a complaint is referred to the Committee under Stage 3 the process as set out in the LRP will be followed.

SECTION 4 - PROCEDURE WHERE AN INVESTIGATION HAS BEEN CONDUCTED BY THE OMBUDSMAN

- 4.1 Where the Ombudsman has investigated and referred the matter to the Authority for hearing, the procedure below will be followed:
- 4.2 The Ombudsman will refer a report containing the findings of the investigation to the Authority. At least 5 working days in advance of the hearing, all parties to the hearing will be given a copy of the Order of Proceedings and the Ombudsman's report so that they have sufficient time to prepare.
- 4.3 Neither the Complainant nor the Member involved may canvass, directly or indirectly, any member of the Standards Committee during the period of preparation for the hearing.
- 4.4 If a complaint is made against a member of the Standards Committee, that member will not be involved in any aspect of the investigation, hearing or subsequent decision.
- 4.5 If a Member fails to attend a hearing or refuses to attend, the Standards Committee is entitled to proceed in his/her absence, should they so decide.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

- 4.6 At the hearing, the following procedure will be adopted, unless there is a justifiable reason not to do so. Only the Standards Committee, Clerk and Monitoring Officer, Ombudsman (or his nominated representative), the Member(s) who is/are the subject of the complaint and friend will be entitled to be present at the hearing. Simultaneous translation will be made available for the purpose of any person involved who requests to give evidence in Welsh. The Clerk and Monitoring Officer will make a detailed note of all the evidence heard:-
- 4.6.1 The Chair will introduce all persons present and outline the Order of Hearing; the Complainant will then be invited to address the Standards Committee.
 - 4.6.2 The Ombudsman will open the case and address the Standards Committee on all aspects that are to be raised. The Ombudsman may refer to any of the evidence that has been distributed to all parties prior to the hearing and may call witnesses if necessary.
 - 4.6.3 The Member will then be given an opportunity to ask questions of the Ombudsman and/or witness(es) via the Chair of the Standards Committee.
 - 4.6.4 Members of the Committee will be given an opportunity to ask questions of the Ombudsman and/or witness(es).
 - 4.6.5 The Member will then be given the opportunity to put forward his/her case and address the Standards Committee on aspects that he/she wishes to raise. He/she may refer to any of the evidence distributed to all parties before the hearing and may call witnesses if necessary.
 - 4.6.6 The Ombudsman may then ask questions of the Member, via the Chair.
 - 4.6.7 Members of the Committee may then ask questions of the Member.
 - 4.6.8 The Ombudsman will sum up the case.
 - 4.6.9 The Member will sum up his/her case.

Part 5 – Codes and Protocols

4.6.10 The Chair will ask the parties to leave the room. The Committee will then retire in private, along with the Clerk and Monitoring Officer, in order to assess the evidence heard and to make its decision. The reasons for reaching a decision should be carefully recorded. The Committee may make its decision in stages as set out below. If it does so it will seek representations from the Ombudsman and Member at each stage:

4.6.10.1 determine the disputed facts, and which facts are proven;

4.6.10.2 determine whether the proven facts reveal a breach of the code;

4.6.10.3 determine what penalty, if any, should be imposed on the member in respect of any breaches of the code that have been proven.

4.7 Within seven days, the Committee will write to the Ombudsman and Member to set out the decision. The letter will include detail of the member's right to appeal the Standards Committee's decision.

PUBLIC INTEREST DISCLOSURE (WHISTLEBLOWING) AND BRIBERY

1 PURPOSE

Background

- 1.1 As a public service organisation, the Fire Authority will use public funds prudently and apply the highest standards of conduct throughout the organisation. This procedure encourages all workers to help maintain these standards, by enabling workers to draw attention to any concerns which they may have. Public disclosure may well be justified at some point, but this should not happen before the Service has had the opportunity to investigate the concern. Premature or unnecessary publicity may impede proper investigations.
- 1.2 The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998, as amended, provides protection for workers who raise legitimate concerns about specified matters. These are called "qualifying disclosures". A qualifying disclosure is one made in the public interest by "a worker" who has a reasonable belief that:
- a criminal offence;
 - a miscarriage of justice;
 - an act creating risk to health and safety;
 - an act causing damage to the environment;
 - a breach of any other legal obligation; or
 - concealment of any of the above;

is being, has been, or is likely to be, committed. It is not necessary for the worker to have proof that such an act is being, has been, or is likely to be, committed - a reasonable belief is sufficient. The worker has no responsibility for investigating the matter - it is the Service's responsibility to ensure that an investigation takes place.

- 1.3 A worker who makes such a protected disclosure has the right not to be dismissed, subjected to any other detriment, or victimised, because they have made a disclosure.

Bribery Act 2010

- 1.4 NWFRS will not tolerate any form of bribery by, or of, its workers, agents or consultants or any person or body acting on its behalf. The Service is committed to implementing effective measures to prevent, monitor and eliminate bribery.

- 1.5 For the purposes of the Bribery Act 2010, bribery is defined as the giving or taking of a reward for acting dishonestly and/or in breach of the law.

Principles

- 1.6 All workers should be aware of the importance of preventing and eliminating wrongdoing at work. Workers should be watchful for illegal or unethical conduct and report anything of that nature of which they become aware.
- 1.7 Any matter raised under this procedure will be investigated thoroughly, promptly and confidentially, and the outcome of the investigation reported back to the worker who raised the issue.
- 1.8 If misconduct is discovered as a result of any investigation under this procedure the Service's disciplinary procedure will be instigated in accordance with the NWFRS Discipline Handbook and/or take other external measures as appropriate.
- 1.9 No worker will be victimised for raising a matter under this procedure. This means that the continued employment and opportunities for future promotion/training of or contracts with the worker will not be prejudiced because they have raised a legitimate concern.
- 1.10 Victimisation of or causing/applying any detriment to a worker for raising a qualified disclosure will be a disciplinary offence. NWFRS will consider terminating any contract with the Service of any organisation that victimises or causes/applies any detriment to a worker who has raised a legitimate concern.
- 1.11 This policy is not intended to cover concerns or issues that fall within the scope of other procedures, e.g. the grievance procedure.
- 1.12 Maliciously making a false allegation is a disciplinary offence.
- 1.13 An instruction to cover up wrongdoing is itself a disciplinary offence. If told not to raise or pursue any concern, even by a person in authority such as a manager, workers should not agree to remain silent. They should report the matter to a Principal Officer.

2 SCOPE

- 2.1 This policy applies to "workers", which includes:
- employees (whether permanent or temporary) and office holders;
 - agency workers;
 - people on work experience or secondment to the Service; and

- people who work for organisations contracted to provide services to the Service

2.2 It is important to the Service that any fraud, misconduct or wrongdoing by workers is reported and properly dealt with. The Service therefore encourages workers to raise any concerns that they may have about the conduct of others in the Service or the way in which the Service is run. This policy sets out the way in which workers may raise any concerns that they have and how those concerns will be dealt with.

3 EFFECTIVE DATE

1 April 2019.

4 PARENT POLICY

The Human Resources Overarching policy.

5 PROCEDURE

How to raise a concern

5.1 When deciding who would be best to approach, the worker should take into account the matter, its seriousness and its sensitivity, and who may be involved. Some examples are:-

- The line manager [i.e. for a local service delivery concern]
- The Head of the Department or another Head of Department [i.e. for a service delivery concern within the wider department]
- Internal Audit or the Head of Finance [i.e. for a concern about financial probity]
- A Principal Officer [i.e. for a concern which has Service wide implications]
- Confidential reporting to the Whistleblowing Manager [i.e. concerns about fraud, theft, damage to equipment, harassment/bullying, or concerns involving line managers]. (Please note that the Whistleblowing Manager is the Head of Human Resources and Deputy Head of Human Resources during periods of business continuity management).

5.2 To raise a concern via the Whistleblowing Manager, there is a confidential Whistleblowing telephone number (01745 535298 or internally extension 55298) with a 24 hour message service. There is also a dedicated email address whistleblowing@nwales-fireservice.org.uk. If the worker wishes to raise their concern other than via the helpline or email address, they can do this in writing, marking the envelope

“personal and confidential” and send to the Whistleblowing Manager, Ffordd Llanelwy, St Asaph Business Park, St Asaph, Denbighshire, LL17 0JJ.

- 5.3 Whichever contact is chosen, it is important that the worker gives as much information as possible. The following information is useful:
- The worker's name, job and location and if the worker does not wish to be contacted at work their home address and phone number.
 - Why the worker is concerned and the background information.
 - Any other procedures, which have already been used, and what happened.
 - The people who are involved and where they work.
 - Dates or periods of time.
 - The names and jobs of any other people who will [or may] support the concern.
- 5.4 The earlier a concern is raised the better. Whilst the worker will not be expected to prove that allegations are true, they will need to show that they have a reasonable basis for concern and that they believe it to be in the public interest to raise it.

Anonymous Allegations

- 5.5 This policy encourages workers to put their name to their allegations. Concerns expressed anonymously are much less powerful, but they will be considered at the discretion of the Service.
- 5.6 In exercising this discretion, the factors to be taken into account would indicate:
- The seriousness of the issues raised;
 - The credibility of the concern and
 - The likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.
- 5.7 The Service will do its best to protect a whistleblower's identity when they raise a concern and do not want their name to be disclosed. However, it must be appreciated that the investigation process may reveal the source of the information and a statement may be required as part of the evidence, particularly if the police or external auditors are involved.

How the concern will be dealt with

- 5.8 The action taken by the Service will of course depend on the nature of the concern. The matters raised could:

- Be investigated internally by an officer nominated by the Service;
- Be referred to the Police;
- Be referred to the Financial Regulator;
- Form the subject of an independent enquiry.

5.9 Based on the nature of the concern, together with the initial evidence and discussions with a Principal Officer, a decision on the most appropriate course of action will be made. (If the concern is regarding the Chief Fire Officer the concern will be raised with the Chair of the Fire Authority). Some concerns may be resolved by agreed action, without the need for formal investigation.

5.10 Within 10 working days of a concern being received, the Service will contact the worker raising the concern to:

- Acknowledge that the concern has been received;
- Indicate how it proposes to deal with the matter;
- Give an estimate of how long it will take to provide a final response;
- Confirm if any initial enquiries have been made; and
- Indicate if further investigations will take place, and if not why not.

5.11 Within 10 working days of the completion of an investigation process, the Service will write to the worker raising the concern to:

- Confirm the outcome of the investigation;
- Indicate what further action will take place, and if not why not.

5.12 Following the completion of the procedure the worker will be asked to complete the Whistleblowing Feedback Form at Appendix 1. This will ensure the worker is satisfied with any investigation and the response.

5.13 If the worker has used the above procedure and is not satisfied with any action taken in relation to the concerns and feels the need to raise the matter outside the Service, further external contact points are provided below. Please note that the following list is not exhaustive and the worker is able to contact any organisation which they feel will be able to deal properly with the concerns.

Bribery Act 2010

- 5.15 Under the Bribery Act 2010 there are four possible offences:
- 5.16 Bribing another person – the offering, promising or giving of a reward to induce a person to perform a relevant function or activity improperly. For this offence to be committed there needs to be evidence that the act under consideration was carried out with the purpose of inducing the person to act improperly;
- 5.17 Being bribed – the accepting of, agreeing to accept or requesting of a reward in return for performing a relevant function or activity improperly. A 'relevant function or activity' includes any activity of a public nature or any activity connected to a business. 'Acting improperly' will be any breach of what a reasonable person in the UK would expect in relation to the performing of the function activity. However, note that the offences apply even if the function or activity is not taking place in the UK;
- 5.18 Bribing a foreign public official – this is a specific offence of trying to influence a foreign public official with the intention of obtaining or retaining business in a situation where the public official was not permitted or required by law to be influenced. The government guidance makes specific comment about situations when seeking tenders for publicly funded contracts, in such situations governments often permit those tendering for the contract to offer some kind of additional investment in the local economy, or to carry out some act what would be of benefit to the local community. If relevant written law permits or requires an official to be influenced by such an offence then this will fall outside of the offence. If the additional investment would amount to an advantage to the foreign public official and there is no reference in local law as to whether this is permitted, the prosecution is possible – consideration would be given to the public interest in prosecuting;

- 5.19 Failure to prevent bribery – this occurs when an organisation fails to stop people who are operating on its behalf from being involved in bribery. This offence could occur as a result of the activities of a range of people working on behalf of the organisation were involved in accepting or receiving a bribe which resulted in the organisation gaining or retaining business.
- 5.20 The Service has systems and procedures in place to manage and discharge its functions in an efficient and effective way. These systems incorporate internal controls to prevent and reduce the risk of fraud and corruption, including adequate separation of duties where appropriate.
- 5.21 Financial Regulations require that the Chief Fire Officer ensures that controls are properly maintained, that staff ensure that working practices comply with appropriate procedures and processes and that Internal Audit regularly check the existence, appropriateness and effectiveness of the controls.

Prohibitions

- 5.22 NWFRS prohibits workers of associated persons from offering, promising, giving, soliciting or accepting any bribe. The bribe might be cash, a gift or other inducement to, or from, any person or company, whether a public or government official, official of a state-controlled industry, political party or a private person or company, regardless of whether the worker or associated person is situated in the UK or overseas. The bribe might be made to ensure that a person or company improperly perform duties or functions to gain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage for the company in either obtaining or maintaining company business, or to gain personal advantage, financial or otherwise, for the individual or anyone connected with the individual.
- 5.23 The prohibition also applies to indirect contributions, payments or gifts made in any manner as an inducement or reward for improper performance, for example through consultants, contractors or subcontractors, agents or sub-agents, sponsors or sub-sponsors, joint-venture partners, advisors, customers, suppliers or other third parties.
- 5.24 Workers and associated persons are required to cooperate with the Service's risk management procedures and to report suspicions of bribery to the Head of Human Resources. While any suspicious circumstances should be reported, workers and associated persons are required particularly to report:

- close family, personal or business ties that a prospective agent, representative or joint-venture partner may have with government or corporate officials, directors or workers;
- requests for cash payments;
- requests for unusual payment arrangements, for example via a third party;
- requests for reimbursements of unsubstantiated or unusual expenses; or;
- a lack of standard invoices and proper financial practices.

5.25 If a worker or associated person is in any doubt as to whether or not a potential act constitutes bribery, the matter should be referred to the Head of Human Resources.

6 RESPONSIBILITIES

This will be the responsibility of the Head of the Department, and conducted after every 1, 2 or 3 years, depending on the importance of the document, from the date of issue or amendment. To ensure the continuous effectiveness of this policy and associated procedures, it is the responsibility of workers to indicate any weakness, omission or amendment that may be considered in order to improve the policy's effective use.

GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

This policy and its associated procedure are intended to act as a guide in determining the correct course of action with regard to the acceptance and declaration of gifts and hospitality. They apply to:

- all Members of the North Wales Fire and Rescue Authority (FRA);
- all employees of the North Wales Fire and Rescue Service (NWFRS).

Such gifts and hospitality may be offered to individuals in their capacity as a Member or an employee of the Fire and Rescue Authority, and might be perceived as having an impact upon that role. That impact might fall upon:

- how or whether they are perceived to perform their role;
- whether they are perceived to be impartial;
- whether they are perceived to have lost that impartiality as a consequence of the gift or hospitality.

The required approach in dealing with gifts and hospitality is based upon their nature and value. Any decision in respect of gifts and hospitality rests with the individual, although guidance may be sought from the Clerk / Monitoring Officer.

It is the Line Manager's responsibility to decide whether a gift or hospitality can be accepted; the acceptance of gifts or hospitality could bring the individual or the FRA into disrepute if it creates the impression that:

- someone may be seeking, or may have already received, special treatment;
- someone may be seeking to influence decisions;
- people who should be working in the public interest are using their roles for self-enrichment.

In deciding whether to accept any gifts or hospitality, regardless of their value, the Line Manager should consider whether a member of the public who is in full possession of the facts would reasonably think that:

- the individual might have been influenced by the gift and / or hospitality received;
- the gift / hospitality is otherwise inappropriate.

The Fire and Rescue Authority has decided that:

- any gifts or hospitality with a value greater than £25 should be recorded;
- all cash gifts provided by members of the public must be declared and will be donated to The Fire Fighters Charity. No other cash gifts should be accepted.

However, for the purposes of transparency, any individual accepting or refusing a gift or a form of hospitality should email the full details to the Monitoring Officer (members of the FRA) or the Head of Finance and Procurement (employees of the NWFRS) within 20 days of its occurrence at the following address:
